Kemboy owner targets Leopardstown return

CHELTENHAM Gold Cup favourite Kemboy could be racing by the New Year, according to one of the men hoping to sort out a dispute over his ownership. The Savills Chase at Leopardstown on December 28 is being lined up for Kemboy's comeback. The Willie Mullins-trained chaser is one of the horses that carried the colours of the Supreme Racing Club. Horse Racing Ireland

(HRI) has voided all registrations of the Supreme Racing Club and its shareholders are now trying to thrash out an agreement to get the 29 Supreme horses racing again. US businessman Brett Graham, who claims he has provided proof to HRI of his 40 per cent stake in Kemboy, said ex-Supreme horses could be re-registered this week. 'We are in full implementation mode as far as re-registering the horses, starting with Kemboy,' he said.
