Kemboy owner targets Leopardstown return

Cheltenham Gold Cup favourite Kemboy could be rested by the New Year according to one of the men responsible for training him, his co-owner and trainer, Tony McCoy.

"Kemboy and I have been trying to set the right agenda for him," McCoy told Racing Post. "He is one of my best horses and we don't want to burn him out early in the season." McCoy is one of the owners of the Supreme Novices' Hurdle winner at the Cheltenham Festival on December 31.
